The annual general assembly of the 'Foire des Antiquaires de Belgique asbl / Antiekbeurs van België vzw', BRAFA's organising body, centred on the election of the new Board of Directors for a mandate of 3 years (2018-2021). An almost unanimous vote led to the re-election of the members, with Mr Olivier Theunissen being the only new member in the Board.

The new Board of Directors 2018-2021 will therefore be composed as follows:

- Didier Claes, Vice-President
- Francis Maere, Vice-President
- Christian Vrouyr, Secretary-General
- Jean Lemaire, Treasurer

"The huge vote of confidence underlines both the incredible support we have from our members and our shared desire to continue reinforcing the quality and international appeal of the fair, two focal points of the approach we've developed in recent years which have, we believe, led to BRAFA's success. In an increasingly competitive context, stability and continuity are vital. Let's work!" declares Harold t'Kint de Roodenbeke, who, is beginning his third term as President.

The next edition of BRAFA will take place from 26 January – 3 February 2019 on the Tour & Taxis site in Brussels.
